SUBJECT: Public Meetings /Notices, Agendas & Writings/Alternative Format & Aids Or Services For The Disabled

Assembly Bill 3035 (Assembly Judiciary Committee), as enacted on August 28, 2002, made the following changes to California law:

Section 11123.1 of the Government Code is added.

This act requires that any open, public meeting of a state body must be held in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

Section 11125 of the Government Code is amended.

This act requires that a meeting notice be made available in appropriate alternative formats, upon request of a person with a disability. Information regarding the availability of disability-related aids or services and the person who is responsible for receiving requests for such aid or service must be included in the notice.

Section 11125.1 of the Government Code is amended.

This act requires that the writings made available for public inspection be made available in appropriate alternative formats upon request of a person with a disability.

Section 11135 of the Government Code is amended.

This act expands the discrimination prohibitions to include race and national origin.

This act is effective January 1, 2003.

This act will not require any reports by the department to the Legislature.
